Dear Sir: It is about one year since I quit milities your medicines, and I can truly say that I have been CURED of epilepsy. When I commenced your treatment, two years and last June, under a guirantee, I had my doubts of a cure, for I had taken treatment from a prominent specialist for enlipsy in Philadelphia, another in Atchison, Kas, and several other doctors, but mone of them did me any good. I was having my attacks about every four or five weeks, but since commencing your treatment good it was having my attacks about every four or five weeks, but since commencing your treatment and hope the many others afflicted as I was will take advantage of your skill and that you may have the rame success with them that you had with me. I am yours very truly.

Box 194, Larned, Kas., Oct. 14, 1993.

Gentlemen: In compliance with your request for a statement of my case, I beg to say that three days before I called upon you I was informed by one of Kansas City's best-known physicians and surgeons that I could live but a short time unless I submitted to a certain surgical operation at once. I then went to another physician, who stated that if the operation was not performed at an early date I would lose my mind. I next talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to consult you. Your examining physician stated that I could be cured without surgical procedure, and you have fulfilled every promise. In fact, I am entirely cured and feel like a new woman, and I bless the day that I placed my case in your hands. I shall certainly recommend you whenever the opportunity presents itself. Gratefully yours.

127 Campbell St., K. C., Mo., Nov. If. '03.

Dear Doctors: Replying to your inquiry regarding the success of your treatment of our 3-year-old boy, will say he took your remedies for tapeworm last August and has been gaining in fiesh and strength ever since. We certainly owe the child's life to you. After six different trials with other doctors, without relief, you cured him, expelling the tapeworm, head and all, without even making him sick. We found you honest, truthful and reliable.

MRS. C. W. HENKLE,

Occ. 23, '63.

Gentlemen: Your favor just received and if finds me enjoying the best of health. The cancer on my face, with which I suffered for years, and which I had treated by several doctors without benefit, hus never bothered me since I took your treatment. You cured me in eight days after all hope, apparently. took your treatment. You cured me in eight days after all hope, apparently, was gone. I also took your treatment for paralysis. I went to your offices on crutches, which I had been using for several months. After being under your care for a short time I discarded them and have had no occasion to use them since. You are certainly reliable, as well as skillful. Very truly yours.

PIERRE LIQUEST DE LACLEDE. The statue from which this picture is taken was made from drawings and descriptions. No portrait of him is known to exist.

He was of noble parentage, and on attaining his majority succeeded to a conskierable heritage. He was an ardent republican, and his zeal for the cause which he espoused be-came so well known that he was finally forced to either leave forever the land of his birth, or go to the Bastile. So he salled for Louisiana, and became a merchant. The name of his firm was Maxent, Laclede & Co., and early records speak of it as one of the leading mercantile establishments of New Orleans. Laclede, who was still a young man It was the entire amount he could realize

The suggestion of Mayor Wells that August 11 be chosen as St. Louis Day, because it is the anniversary of the day on which a grant of land was made to Pierre Liqueste de Laiclede, calls attention to that remarkable man who founded St. Louis and once owned the land on which it stands.

The exact date of Laclede's birth is in doubt, but he was born in 172t in Bedons, Valle d'Aspre, Diocese d'Oloron, Bearn, France.

branch of the Chouteau family in St. Louis.

The children of Laclese took the name of Chouteau, as was required by the Spanish and French law of a divorced woman's children by her second husband.

Several signatures of Laclede are in existerce, the Missour. Historical Bociety having three.

One of these is appended to an agreement whereby the signers of the document bind themselves to pay 1,200 lires in deer skins to Pierre Luxien Baron, carpenter and builder, when he shall have constructed a church building, the dimensions and specifications of which are fully set out.

OBJECT TO CONVICT LABOR. Union Men File Protest With

Governor Lanham. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Dallas, Tex., Jan. 11.—Organized labo has sent a strongly worded document to Governor Lanham against convict labor lesses in the coal and lignite mines of the Thurber district. Among the signers are 130 union coal mirers, who declare that there is an abundance of work for the State's convicts building good public roads, and they should not compete with honest labor.

Governor Lanham says he has nothing to say for publication. On the order of Governor Sayers three years ago, the Penitentiary Board canceled all convict labor leases in the coal mines. The present lease is the first made since that time. The Penitentiary Board to-day declared that the new leases are profitable to the State and will not be canceled.

Labor leaders threaten to make the issue a political one in the coming State a political one in the coming State

O'Connell Must Tell What He Meant by "Clean Up."

"I am going to 'clean up' St. Louis as I did New York," said William O'Connell in William Haynes's saloon, No. 1428 St. Ange avenue, yesterday afternoon. He was soon under arrest and on his way to the Four Courts, where Patrolman to the Four Courts, where Patrolman Walsh booked him for "investigation." When Assistant Chief Keely examined O'Connell the latter was asked to explain the meaning of his phrase about cleaning up the city. O'Connell said that he used the phrase in a figurative sense, and intended to convey the idea that he was going to become prosperous during the World's Fair.

The police refused to accept O'Connell's interpretation of his remark, and a technical charge was lodged against him, so that he might be sent to the Police Court.

CLAIMS ALL OF SAN ANGELO. Charles Wolf Files Deed Which Bears Date of 1843.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 11 .- An important plece of litigation has been started at San Angelo. Charles Wolf has filed an old deed that has created a commotion. The deed bears date in 1843, under the regime of the Texas Republic, and conveys to one Sidon Harris 20,000 acres of land, including the entire townsite of San Angelo, all of it being located along the Concho River Many lawyers consider the deed still valid because of failure of other persons to make proper titles.
